PLACE A PREMIUM ON INTELLIGENCE

NEXT TUESDAY DECIDES WHAT SHALL BE THE FUTURE OF OKLAHOMA.

HARMONIZE THE RACES

The Proposed Suffrage Amendment Works Well in Other States, the Hope of Oklahoma.

The proposed suffrage amendment simply places a premium on intelligence and levies an embargo on ignorance. It commands the negro to qualify himself for the duties of intelligent citizenship before asking for participation in the administration of government. It ought to prove, and we believe that it will prove, a powerful stimulus to negro education and intellectual advancement. The "Western Age," one of the leading negro papers of Oklahoma, says, in an issue of recent date:

"The race needs something to stimulate its desire for education. Every boy and girl should have a certain amount of learning, and if it takes the Grandfather Clause to do it, then let's have the Grandfather clause."

This is the opinion of one of the brainiest negroes of the state. Coming as it does from one who is a negro himself, who has spent his life among negroes, who has devoted his life to the education of negroes, and who knows his race and the needs of his race—it deserves more serious consideration than all the partisan expressions that Frank Greer and Oscar Ameringer could give vent to in a century's time.

In North Carolina. Governor Kitchin of North Carolina says that the Grandfather Clause has created a better feeling between the two races in his state. This is more to be desired than the meaningless privilege of illiterate voting. So long as the two races must live in the same municipality it is decidedly best that they live on friendly terms. Most of the ill-feeling between the races has been created and sustained by political differences disseminated by the criminal meddling of low-bred politicians. If the Grandfather Clause will bring about a better feeling between the races (as it has done in North Carolina) then by all means let us have the Grandfather Clause.

The Problem that Confronts. On next Tuesday the voters of Oklahoma are to decide what shall be the future of the state. On that day they are to determine whether Oklahoma shall be negroid or Anglo-Saxon. When you go into the polling booth think of the past, the present and the future. Think of the days when an insane rabble of illiterate negroes misgoverned the cotton states and gave to American history its only shameful page. Think of the negro candidates for office in twenty East side counties and the unctuous promise of the Guthrie State Capital that if the negro will only stay quiet until after the suffrage amendment is killed he can get all the offices he wants. Think of the ignorant hordes of negroes pouring into the state and try to anticipate the day when negro domination extends to the west side even as it now overwhelms the east side. Think of negroes sitting in the halls of legislation and making laws to govern you and your family. Think of negro constables arresting white men and white women in twenty counties and dragging them away to be tried before a negro justice of the peace. Think of negro balliffs guarding white witnesses and standing guard over white juries. Think of negro school boards governing white schools, making rules for white children, closeting themselves with white lady teachers in lonely country school houses and employing no one to teach except those advocating the nauseating principles of negro equality. Think of the negro mob that stoned the delegates who were on their way to attend the state convention at Muskogee. Think of the negroes who burned the Midland Valley depot when the Jim Crow law was passed. Think of negro missionaries canvassing Southern states, urging negroes to come to Oklahoma—the only cotton state where negroes can govern white schools and sit in the legislature. Think of negro politicians dominating the congressional caucus at Tulsa and putting the entire white electorate of the third congressional district beneath the heel of "Shinola" Sango of Muskogee. Think of all these things, and then decide whether Oklahoma shall be negroid or Anglo-Saxon. And if you decide that Oklahoma shall be Anglo-Saxon, do not vote against the "Grandfather Clause."

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that all parties the Owl Drug Co. of Ada, Okla., was indebted to on July 15th, will be settled by their successor, Mr. E. E. Fowler. They can see him at his place of business any time during business hours. Yours truly,

ALL NEED A GOOD ANCHOR

REV. HENDRICK DISCUSSES THE NECESSITY OF TAKING CHRIST, AS OUR REFUGE

The Strength Must Come From Outside Ourselves.

The services yesterday not unlike the other days were well attended and resulted in great things being accomplished for Christianity. Last night Rev. Carter, by numerous requests, sang again "Holy City." His singing has been instrumental in bringing many souls to God. Having heard him one is convinced that there is indeed, gospel in song.

Rev. Hendrick's style still maintains its force and vigor, notwithstanding that he has labored assiduously every day since his coming here. One thing noticeable about his sermons; he puts Christ in them all, and never fails to remind the world of Christ's wonderful love, his absolute power to save and the necessity of taking him as a personal savior.

His theme last evening was, "Christ Our Refuge." Life on earth was compared to a stormy sea that would engulf and destroy the helpless passenger who would trust his frail bark upon its waters. Thus, speaking of taking Christ as a near and safe refuge, he said, "We are all travelers on the sea of time and need a good anchor." As the anchor holds the tempest tossed bark and prevents its destruction upon the rocks so Jesus holds the Christian safe and secure till the storm of life is over, was in main the thought expressed.

"A refuge we must have or fail." Here he spoke of God's command to Moses to establish the six cities of refuge, that there might be a place of safety near to all His people.

Illustrating the nearness of the Savior to all who seek him, in substance he said, "If the Christ were alive to day and living in the Holy Land as in days of old and we each had to see him in person to be saved we would give up in despair. For the multitude would be so great, the fight so fierce to reach the Savior, we would surely lose hope."

"Christ went away in order to get near every one. I am glad salvation is free to all."

As the cities of the east were near and safe refuges for the inhabitants of the country, so is the Savior not only near, but sure.

Christ was pointed to not only as a refuge in time of danger, not only an anchor in time of a storm, the worthy minister would teach that from the savior we live, he is our hope, protection and existence.

Rev. Hendrick admonishes those out of Christ and out of the church not to reject salvation simply because there may be a few weak church members. On the other hand he would have them to be not like any man. "Get like Christ" is his admonition.

That Christianity, living up to what the Lord requires is not with out its sweet, was affirmed by the evangelist in conclusion of his sermon.

"Christ is lifting men up and if you do not know what is like in your life it is Christ. I do not call you to a starved stilted, but on the other hand to a higher, nobler, more exalted, a life grand and glorious. It is worth every effort it cost, the price that you pay."

Court House News.

J. J. Miller of the Lightning Ridge neighborhood who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of larceny was released yesterday on a bond of $500.

He was charged with taking from some one of that community a few turkeys—not many—only 31. It is not learned how he could have persuaded that number of fowls away from home or what disposition was made of the birds, if the charge be true.

Sheriff Smith made a search for booze last night, and it is said at the residence of one Willis eight bottles of "Bud" and two empty beer barrels were found. However no arrests were made.

THE OUT OF DATE PREACHER

ONE WHO DOES NOT ADVERTISE, SAYS A SPOKANE DIVINE.

NO RAG TIME METHODS

Believes People Should Be Drawn to the Church, But by Right Method.

Spokane, Wash., July 26.—"I have drawn people to hear my sermons by advertising. I have attracted them with moving pictures, hot suppers, pink teas and flowers and flags. If I have had any degree of success in Spokane it is because of the liberal use of printer's ink," said Rev. Dr. James W. Kramer, pastor of First Baptist church, who came to Spokane from South Carolina two years ago. "There is something worse than sensationalism. It is the inability of the church to produce life. The church that does not advertise is behind the times and is nursing empty pews, and he who rails against the minister for advertising is suffering for a congregation. I am not an advocate of ragtime methods or vulgar preaching, but I do plead for the church which is a humming plant of machinery, with live coals in the fire-box, smoke culling from the stack and every belt, wheel and pulley going. I believe, too, that the people need instruction and that a minister of the gospel, is first last and all the time a teacher. There must be life."

CORN INJURED BY THE HEAT

Most Damage in Oklahoma Is Noted in Western Part of the State.

Guthrie, Ok., July 26.—Yesterday's intense heat was duplicated today and the corn crop is in a critical condition. The greatest damage to the corn is in the western counties.

The Board of Agriculture estimated this year's crop at 120,000,000 bushels and the loss to date at 20,000,000.

Suicide Rumor.

There was a rumor in town this morning that there had been another suicide attempted at the Lyle rooming house last night.

This house is where Bob Carroll committed suicide not long ago. Mrs. Lyle informed the News reporter that the rumor of an attempted suicide there last night was all a hoax. A story with "nothing to it." She said a young lady her cousin was taken ill but had no thought of killing herself.

Matthews-Curry vs. Epperson-Bobbitt

The champion tennis players, Messrs. Epperson and Curry, failing to find any opponents, Messrs. Matthews and Bobbitt agreed to play a game yesterday afternoon with them, provided they would not play partners but would play Matthews and Curry vs. Epperson and Bobbitt. It was indeed a very interesting game, and Messrs. Epperson and Bobbitt came out victorious.

RULE ON CAPITAL CASE TODAY

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY SUPREME COURT ON YESTERDAY.

THE GOVERNOR STILL FIRM

Contents That the Executive Is Supreme in Political Acts.

Guthrie, Ok., July 27.—Announcement was made by the Supreme Court yesterday that a 4 p. m. today it would deliver an opinion upon Gov. Haskell's application for a writ of prohibition against the Logan County District Court in the matter of removal of the state capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City.

Following the special election of June 11, Gov. Haskell declared Oklahoma City to be the new capital of Oklahoma, but before removal of the records could be obtained citizens of Logan county, through County Attorney Hepburn, were granted a temporary writ of injunction by the Logan County District court preventing the transfer.

Gov. Haskell was accompanied to Oklahoma City by Secretary of State Cross, and, while the former has moved a portion of his official records since the court injunction, records of the secretary of state's office were left here. Other state offices also remained in Guthrie.

The governor filed a special demurrer to the District court proceedings, but was not sustained. He then applied to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition, argument upon which was concluded July 5.

It is still the governor's contention that the executive is supreme in political acts and can not be controlled by the judiciary.

In event the writ is not granted, the case is returned to the Logan county district court for hearing upon the application for a permanent injunction, and if the decision then is adverse to the Governor's claims he has an appeal to the supreme court which will bring the case upon its merits, squarely presenting the issue whether the Oklahoma enabling act is binding.

CANCELS SPEAKING DATES

WORKS AMONG MINERS

Lehigh, Ok., July 26.—Abandoning politics and canceling her speaking dates, Miss Kate Barnard, State Commissioner of Charities and Corrections, today turned her attention to the relief of suffering coal miners and their families. She learned yesterday of the condition of affairs, brought about by the enforced idleness of the miners for the last few months, and she immediately made a call for aid. Today she distributed $250 among the families of the miners. Part of this was from her own purse. Contributions were made also by Lee Cruce of Ardmore, Clem Page and J. H. White of Tulsa.

HON. W. H. CAMPBELL MAKES STATEMENT

WELL PLEASED WITH ADA'S PROGRESS—LIVED HERE SINCE 1900.

Has Gotten Along Nicely With the Affairs of the Supreme Court.

Judge W. H. L. Campbell an old resident of Ada has been in town all week winding up his campaign for re-election gave the News the following statement:

I have lived in Ada ever since 1900, it was a village then of about four hundred population with one railroad. Today it is the best town in all Oklahoma of the five thousand population class. The Normal school and the Portland Cement plant are great town building institutions.

In regard to my re-election to the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court will say—that I have gotten along in a nice manner with the affairs of that department without much friction or trouble. You know that all the business of that office is transacted through the lawyers of the state, and by the way there are not as many as a dozen democratic lawyers but what are supporting me for re-election. That is pretty good proof that I have gotten along well or these sharp-eyed fellows would have been after me.

Some of my opponents are trying to get a little prejudice up against me by spreading wild stories about the fabulous fees of the office of clerk of the supreme court. Now the strange thing about these huge reports is that they are told in the very face of the sworn report of Charles Taylor, state examiner and inspector. Taylor's report shows that I get a little less than the average salary paid to the other state officers, that is, about $3000 per year. But you know the boys have to have something to run on, and I don't blame them much because they cannot successfully tackle my record in office.

I am running strictly upon my record, am paying very little attention to what they say, and I believe in every man running upon his own merits and if the public questions the other fellow it is all right, but each candidate should stay on his own side of the fence.

I meet a great many old time democrats who strongly adhere to the doctrine—that a good officer is entitled to a second term. Yes, this doctrine sounds good to me, when I consider that I have got along smoothly in the office of clerk of the supreme court.

ONLY ONE.

The Record in Ada Is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ill and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Ada citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Adolph Ridel, S. Sixteenth St., Ada, Okla., says: "I suffered from kidney disease for a couple years and Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of every symptom. Since using them I have been free from the dull ache through my loins and the sharp, shooting pains across my kidneys that had caused me so much misery. I procured Doan's kidney pills at G. M. Ramsey Drug Store and am always glad to give them my recommendation."

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my household work. My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health."

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other jawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui. See yours about it.

TO THE VOTERS OF PONTOTOC COUNTY:

I have a letter from the State Inspector, complimenting us on the way we have kept our books, and goes on to state, from the fact that this part of the State was practically without precedent or Records to go by, yet with these conditions, the work of your office has been well attended.

Valley, Deputy State Inspector, ed. Also, Mr. Roy Burk, of Pauls said we had the best kept set of books and only set that absolutely balanced, that he had checked up in the State.

He said this was his first time to find such since he had been Deputy State Inspector.

The above compliment belongs to J. W. Westbrook, my deputy, for he has done all the particular work of the office. A vote for him means honesty, fairness and strict business methods with the County's finance.

Thanking the voters of Pontotoc county for past favors and any assistance they may lend Mr. Westbrook in this election, I am,

As ever, Yours very truly,

Hon. Wm. H. Murray:

You and your campaign managers continue to circulate over this state the charge that while in the banking business I charged usurious rates of interest, and have repeatedly referred to me as "Forty Per Cent Cruce." During our debates I made you this proposition: You may go in person and take with you any reputable banking expert, to the Ardmore National Bank of Ardmore, Okla., and examine the books of that bank, and if you can find one single loan made by me existing in that bank at the time I severed my connection with it on January 1st, 1910, where the amount of loan exceeded one hundred dollars, and the time of loan ran for more than one month, that the rate of discount exceeded ten per cent per annum, I will withdraw from this race, and if you fail to find such loan you are to withdraw.

This offer will hold good until the polls close on August 2nd.

Fire at Devol.

Lawton, Ok., July 26.—Fire at Devol, Ok., of unknown origin early today destroyed three buildings belonging to J. E. Dixon, valued at $5,000. One building was occupied by J. E. Dixon's general merchandise store, one by the Allison Real Estate company and the third one was vacant.

The buildings were a total loss and were covered by insurance amounting to $2,800. A number of the bucket brigade who heroically fought the flames almost lost his life.

CARTER COUNTY FARMER CHALLENGES OAT RAISERS

Ardmore, Ok., July 26.—Carter county has a farmer who challenges any other county of the state to show a better oat crop than he has. This farmer is A. J. Holiday, his postoffice address is Glenn, Ok., and he says his oat crop is threshing out 103 bushels to the acre. He is one of the farmers who left the Chickasaw Nation and went to New Mexico a few years ago, but came back here, believing Carter County offers the finest opportunities to the farmer of any country he ever saw.

PLACE A PREMIUM ON INTELLIGENCE

NEXT TUESDAY DECIDES WHAT SHALL BE THE FUTURE OF OKLAHOMA.

HARMONIZE THE RACES

The Proposed Suffrage Amendment Works Well in Other States, the Hope of Oklahoma.

The proposed suffrage amendment simply places a premium on intelligence and levies an embargo on ignorance. It commands the negro to qualify himself for the duties of intelligent citizenship before asking for participation in the administration of government. It ought to prove, and we believe that it will prove, a powerful stimulus to negro education and intellectual advancement. The "Western Age," one of the leading negro papers of Oklahoma, says, in an issue of recent date:

"The race needs something to stimulate its desire for education. Every boy and girl should have a certain amount of learning, and if it takes the Grandfather Clause to do it, then let's have the Grandfather clause."

This is the opinion of one of the brainiest negroes of the state. Coming as it does from one who is a negro himself, who has spent his life among negroes, who has devoted his life to the education of negroes, and who knows his race and the needs of his race—it deserves more serious consideration than all the partisan expressions that Frank Greer and Oscar Ameringer could give vent to in a century's time.

In North Carolina, Governor Kitchin, of North Carolina, says that the Grandfather Clause has created a better feeling between the two races in his state. This is more to be desired than the meaningless privilege of illiterate voting. So long as the two races must live in the same municipality it is decidedly best that they live on friendly terms. Most of the ill-feeling between the races has been created and sustained by political differences disseminated by the criminal meddling of low-bred politicians. If the Grandfather Clause will bring about a better feeling between the races (as it has done in North Carolina) then by all means let us have the Grandfather Clause.

The Problem that Confronts. On next Tuesday the voters of Oklahoma are to decide what shall be the future of the state. On that day they are to determine whether Oklahoma shall be negroid or Anglo-Saxon. When you go into the polling booth think of the past, the present and the future. Think of the days when an insane rabble of illiterate negroes misgoverned the cotton states and gave to American history its only shameful page. Think of the negro candidates for office in twenty East side counties and the unctious promise of the Guthrie State Capital that if the negro will only stay quiet until after the suffrage amendment is killed he can get all the offices he wants. Think of the ignorant hordes of negroes pouring into the state and try to anticipate the day when negro domination extends to the west side even as it now overwhelms the east side. Think of negroes sitting in the halls of legislation and making laws to govern you and your family. Think of negro constables arresting white men and white women in twenty counties and dragging them away to be tried before a negro justice of the peace. Think of negro balliffs guarding white witnesses and standing guard over white juries. Think of negro school boards governing white schools, making rules for white children, closeting themselves with white lady teachers in lonely country school houses and employing no one to teach except those advocating the nauseating principles of negro equality. Think of the negro mob that stoned the delegates who were on their way to attend the state convention at Muskogee. Think of the negroes who burned the Midland Valley depot when the Jim Crow law was passed. Think of negro missionaries canvassing Southern states, urging negroes to come to Oklahoma—the only cotton state where negroes can govern white schools and sit in the legislature. Think of negro politicians dominating the congressional caucus at Tulsa and putting the entire white electorate of the third congressional district beneath the heel of "Shinola." Sango of Muskogee. Think of all these things and then decide whether Oklahoma shall be negroid or Anglo-Saxon. And if you decide that Oklahoma shall be Anglo-Saxon, do not vote against the 'Grandfather Clause'.

ALL NEED A GOOD ANCHOR

REV. HENDRICK DISCUSSES THE NECESSITY OF TAKING CHRIST, AS OUR REFUGE

The Strength Must Come From Outside Ourselves.

The services yesterday not unlike the other days were well attended and resulted in great things being accomplished for Christianity. Last night Rev. Carter, by numerous requests, sang again "Holy City." His singing has been instrumental in bringing many souls to God. Having heard him one is convinced that there is indeed, gospel in song.

Rev. Hendrick's style still maintains its force and vigor, notwithstanding that he has labored assiduously every day since his coming here. One thing noticeable about his sermons, he puts Christ in them all, and never fails to remind the world of Christ's wonderful love, his absolute power to save and the necessity of taking him as a personal savior.

His theme last evening was, "Christ Our Refuge." Life on earth was compared to a stormy sea that would engulf and destroy the helpless passenger who would trust his frail bark upon its waters. Thus, speaking of taking Christ as a near and safe refuge, he said, "We are all travelers on the sea of time and need a good anchor." As the anchor holds the tempest tossed bark and prevents its destruction upon the rocks so Jesus holds the Christian safe and secure till the storm of life is over, was in main the thought expressed.

"A refuge we must have or fall." Here he spoke of God's command to Moses to establish the six cities of refuge, that there might be a place of safety near to all His people.

Illustrating the nearness of the Savior to all who seek him, in substance he said, "If the Christ were alive to day and living in the Holy Land as in days of old and we each had to see him in person to be saved we would give up in despair. For the multitude would be so great, the fight so fierce to reach the Savior, we would surely lose hope."

Christ went away in order to get near every one. I am glad salvation is free to all.

As the cities of the east were near and safe refuges for the inhabitants of the country, so is the Savior not only near, but sure.

Christ was pointed to not only as a refuge in time of danger, not only an anchor in time of a storm, the worthy minister would teach that from the savior we live, he is our hope, protection and existence.

Rev. Hendrick admonishes those out of Christ and out of the church not to reject salvation simply because there may be a few weak church members. On the other hand he would have them to be not like any man "Get like Christ" is his admonition.

That Christianity, living up to what the Lord requires is not with out its sweet, was affirmed by the evangelist in conclusion of his sermon.

"Christ is lifting men up and if you do not know what is lifting in your life it is Christ. I do not call you to a starved silted, but on the other hand to a higher, nobler, more exalted, a life grand and glorious. It is worth every effort it cost, the price that you pay."

Court House News.

J. J. Miller of the Lightning Ridge neighborhood who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of larceny was released yesterday on a bond of $500.

He was charged with taking from some one of that community a few turkeys—not many—only 31. It is not learned how he could have persuaded that number of fowls away from home or what disposition was made of the birds, if the charge be true.

Sheriff Smith made a search for booze last night, and it is said at the residence of one Willis eight bottles of "Bud" and two empty beer barrels were found. However no arrests were made.

THE OUT OF DATE PREACHER

ONE WHO DOES NOT ADVERTISE, SAYS A SPOKANE DIVINE.

NO RAG TIME METHODS

Believes People Should Be Drawn to the Church, But by Right Method.

Spokane, Wash., July 26.—I have drawn people to hear my sermons by advertising. I have attracted them with moving pictures, hot suppers, pink teas and flowers and flags. If I have had any degree of success in Spokane it is because of the liberal use of printer's ink," said Rev. Dr. James W. Kramer, pastor of First Baptist church, who came to Spokane from South Carolina two years ago. "There is something worse than sensationalism. It is the inability of the church to produce life. The church that does not advertise is behind the times and is nursing empty pews." And he who rails against the minister for advertising is suffering for a congregation. I am not an advocate of ragtime methods or vulgar preaching, but I do plead for the church which is a humming plant of machinery, with live coals in the fire-box, smoke curling from the stack and every belt, wheel and pulley going. I believe, too, that the people need instruction and that a minister of the gospel, is first last and all the time a teacher. There must be life."

CORN INJURED BY THE HEAT

Most Damage in Oklahoma Is Noted in Western Part of the State.

Guthrie, Ok., July 26.—Yesterday's intense heat was duplicated today and the corn crop is in a critical condition. The greatest damage to the corn is in the western counties. The Board of Agriculture estimated this year's crop at 120,000,000 bushels and the loss to date at 20,000,000.

It was indeed a very interesting game and Messrs. Epperson and Bobbitt came out victorious.

RULE ON CAPITAL CASE TODAY

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY SUPREME COURT ON YESTERDAY.

THE GOVERNOR STILL FIRM

Contents That the Executive Is Supreme in Political Acts.

Guthrie, Ok., July 27.—Announcement was made by the Supreme Court yesterday that at 4 p. m. today it would deliver an opinion upon Gov. Haskell's application for a writ of prohibition against the Logan County District Court in the matter of removal of the state capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City.

Following the special election of June 11, Gov. Haskell declared Oklahoma City to be the new capital of Oklahoma, but before removal of the records could be obtained citizens of Logan county, through County Attorney Hepburn, were granted a temporary writ of injunction by the Logan County District court preventing the transfer.

Gov. Haskell was accompanied to Oklahoma City by Secretary of State Cross, and while the former has moved a portion of his official records since the court injunction, records of the secretary of state's office were left here. Other state offices also remained in Guthrie.

The governor filed a special demurrer to the District court proceedings, but was not sustained. He then applied to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition, argument upon which was concluded July 5.

It is still the governor's contention that the executive is supreme in political acts and can not be controlled by the judiciary.

In event the writ is not granted, the case is returned to the Logan county district court for hearing upon the application for a permanent injunction, and if the decision then is adverse to the Governor's claims he has an appeal to the supreme court which will bring the case upon its merits, squarely presenting the issue whether the Oklahoma enabling act is binding.

CANCELS SPEAKING DATES

WORKS AMONG MINERS

Lehigh, Ok., July 26.—Abandoning politics and canceling her speaking dates, Miss Kate Barnard, State Commissioner of Charities and Corrections, today turned her attention to the relief of suffering coal miners and their families. She learned yesterday of the condition of affairs; brought about by the enforced idleness of the miners for the last few months, and she immediately made a call for aid. Today she distributed $250 among the families of the miners. Part of this was from her own purse. Contributions were made also by Lee Cruce of Ardmore, Clem Page and J. H. White of Tulsa.

HON. W. H. CAMPBELL MAKES STATEMENT

WELL PLEASED WITH ADA'S PROGRESS—LIVED HERE SINCE 1900.

Has Gotten Along Nicely With the Affairs of the Supreme Court.

Judge W. H. L. Campbell an old resident of Ada has been in town all week winding up his campaign for re-election gave the News the following statement:

I have lived in Ada ever since 1900, it was a village then of about four hundred population with one railroad. Today it is the best town in all Oklahoma of the five thousand population class. The Normal school and the Portland Cement plant are great town building institutions.

In regard to my re-election to the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court will say—that I have gotten along in a nice manner with the affairs of that department without much friction or trouble. You know that all the business of that office is transacted through the lawyers of the state, and by the way there are not as many as a dozen democratic lawyers but what are supporting me for re-election. That is pretty good proof that I have gotten along well or these sharp-eyed fellows would have been after me.

Some of my opponents are trying to get a little prejudice up against me by spreading wild stories about the fabulous fees of the office of clerk of the supreme court. Now the strange thing about these huge reports is that they are told in the very face of the sworn report of Charles Taylor, state examiner and inspector Taylor's report shows that I get a little less than the average salary paid to the other state officers, that is, about $3000 per year. But you know the boys have to have something to run on, and I don't blame them much because they cannot successfully tackle my record in office.

I am running strictly upon my record, am paying very little attention to what they say, and I believe in every man running upon his own merits and if the public questions the other fellow it is all right, but each candidate should stay on his own side of the fence.

I meet a great many old time democrats who strongly adhere to the doctrine—that a good officer is entitled to a second term. Yes, this doctrine sounds good to me, when I consider that I have got along smoothly in the office of clerk of the supreme court.

ONLY ONE.

The Record in Ada Is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ailment and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Ada citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Adolph Ridel, S. Sixteenth St., Ada, Okla., says: "I suffered from kidney disease for a couple years and Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of every symptom. Since using them I have been free from the dull ache through my loins and the sharp, shooting pains across my kidneys that had caused me so much misery. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at G. M. In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework.

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the woman's functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui. See yours about it.

Lee Cruce's Open Letter to Bill Murray.

Hon. Wm. H. Murray:
You and your campaign managers continue to circulate over this state the charge that while in the banking business I charged usurious rates of interest, and have repeatedly referred to me as "Forty Per Cent Cruce." During our debates I made you this proposition: You may go in person and take with you any reputable banking expert, to the Ardmore National Bank of Ardmore, Okla., and examine the books of that bank, and if you can find one single loan made by me existing in that bank at the time I severed my connection with it on January 1st, 1910, where the amount of loan exceeded one hundred dollars, and the time of loan ran for more than one month, that the rate of discount exceeded ten percent per annum, I will withdraw from this race, and if you fail to find such loan you are to withdraw.

This offer will hold good until the polls close on August 2nd

NO CHIEF OF POLICE ELECTED BY COUNCIL

THREE APPLICANTS—BOTH GAY AND GOYNE RECEIVE THREE VOTES—THREE BALLOTS TAKEN—NO ELECTION.

Council Tried But Failed to Pass Moving Picture Ordinance Prohibiting Showing of Murder and Robbery Scenes.

The City Council met in regular session Monday evening; all members being present, except Tom Hope of the second ward and James Grigsby of the third ward. The city attorney, James A. Webb as usual was present. The first business outside of routine that was transacted was the appointment of three commissioners, whose duties it will be to apportion and assess the benefits accruing to the respective property owners with in the paving district. Messrs. James Wintersmith, L. T. Walters and C. M. Chancey were the gentlemen appointed.

When these three gentlemen had been named the point was raised by Carlton Weaver, that according to custom of democratic administration, when there was to be an appointment of a board consisting of three members that usually two were democrats and one was republican, that should not such policies be adhered in the appointment of the three paving appraisers for Ada. He was informed by the city attorney that such was the case, that Mr. Wintersmith and Mr. Walters were democrats and Mr. Chancey republican. Carlton suggested that evidently the city attorney was under some misapprehension as to Mr. Wintersmith for he was evidently a republican as he had heard him a few days previously vigorously excoriating the democratic administration. The city attorney good humoredly took a fall out of Carlton by suggesting that he couldn't very well place a man's politics on such account, especially since he was supporting Bill Murray for governor, and Murray was somewhat of an administration critic himself. After some more good humored rally, the council continued to transact business.

An ordinance was introduced by Councilman Sims, regulating the character of production which should be had at the moving picture shows. The prohibitions which the ordinance set out couldn't be produced were, the prize fight, bank and train robberies, or any western scene which tended to lawlessness and murder. Following the reading of this ordinance there was considerable discussion regarding the probable effect, if it should pass, on the local picture shows in the city. While it was evident that the council desired to discontinue the business of its endangering influences, especially on the youthful minds, and weak ones easily influenced in the criminal direction, there appeared to be a desire to not to inflict any injury on the moving picture man or the public, or to effect any radical legislation along such lines.

The moving picture ordinance was for the time defeated by failure by all present to vote as was required to suspend the rules in order to legalize its immediate passage. Councilman Chapman was opposed to the ordinance as drafted and did not vote for suspension of the rules, consequently Councilman Sims withdrew the ordinance for later presentation, as he suggested when a full council would be present.

The next undertaking of the council was the manner of the election of a chief of police. There was some discussion as to whether it would be more practical and more nearer conserve the desires of the people to appoint a chief of police, or to order an election by the people. Mayor L. J. Little took the position that an election should be authorized and that the council should appoint who ever might be recommended by a vote of the electorate of the city, but on a motion it was decided that the vote of four to two that the council should go into the election of a chief of police. Mr. Little called Mr. Sims to the chair and retired from the hall. Two written applications and one verbal application were presented, being J. B. Gay, Walter Goyne and Mr. Ellison. The vote stood three for Gay and three for Goyne. Three ballots were taken, but no change was effected, whereon the council adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock. This morning it met according to agreement, but failed to resume the consideration of the election of a chief of police.

The first order of business was the authorization to the mayor and city clerk to deliver to Glickerson and Levy $25,000 worth of bonds in part payment for the sewer system, which they have lately installed on the east side. While the contractors have finished the east side sewer construction there is due them an amount close to $3000. Full payment was not authorized for the reason there was some minor differences between the city and the contractors as to the proper settlement.

The next matter of attention was instructions to the city engineer to extend the sewer line in the business district, so connections would be had with the new and prospective business property on West 12th without the necessity of having to construct a line under Carney's livery barn.

After this several ordinances were passed of more or less important import, which may be read in this or succeeding issues of the News. The council adjourned until Thursday morning at 9 o'clock when there will be the final business with Glickerson and Levy and delivery of balance of bonds.

Will Vote on Bonds.

Hobart, Ok., July 26.—The city council in special session has passed a resolution calling an election for August 2 to vote bonds in the sum of $15,000 to run eight and ten-inch water main to Big Elk, construct a dam, and install a motor above the high water mark to furnish water for the city.

If the bonds carry at the election water can be pumped into Hobart from Big Elk Creek within the next thirty days, and the critical situation of the present and that of last summer relieved for all time to come.

Boy Drowned at a Picnic.

Medford, Ok., July 26.—William Cotterill, the 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cotterill, prosperous farmers living near Manchester, north west of here, was drowned in Neilson Lake, southwest of Manchester, yesterday afternoon. Young Cotterill was attending a Sunday school picnic, and together with a number of others was in swimming, when he got in too deep, and it is supposed was attacked with cramps and drowned with in sight of scores of picknickers, who were unable to render him assistance in time to save him.

Maintaining a Nuisance.

Muskogee, Ok., July 26.—Mayor Arthur F. McCarr, eight members of the city council, the city engineering department, and sanitary officers of Muskogee were this afternoon arrested on warrants sworn out by Dr. W. T. Tilly, president of the state board of health, charging them with maintaining a nuisance south of the city, where the city maintains two septic tanks into which the city sewerage is dumped. All were released on their own recognizance to appear for trial at a later date.

TO THE VOTERS OF PONTOTOC COUNTY

It was conceded by the democratic county central committee of Pontotoc county that Seminole county should have the place of Floterial Representative this year, and upon the strength of this resolution I announced for the office.

If you will elect me as your representative I shall do my best to represent, both counties just alike and will show no special favors to either, and I can see no place where the interest of the two counties will likely clash.

I would like for the voters of Pontotoc County to investigate me and my ability to fill this position and if upon this investigation you find that I will honestly represent you, I will appreciate the vote.

I have nothing to say against the man from your county who is making the race for this office, but I do think that in all fairness a Seminole county man should be your representative for you have had the place since statehood as well as that of state senator, and I don't think the voters of Pontotoc county want to take these places because they are in the majority, and I shall depend upon Pontotoc county to lend large assistance in electing me if they find that I am a man that will do the right thing.

Almost any farmer, merchant or banker in Seminole county knows me and I will submit to their opinion as to who and what I am.

Yours very truly
J. S. BARHAM

Wewoka, July 18

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

The race for Attorney General in the democratic party has singled down to Key, West and Graham. The two latter have held office since statehood and are quarrelling among themselves. Graham challenges West, calling him incompetent and a grandstander, who tries his cases harder in the newspapers than in the courts. West side stepped while they are thus quarrelling and weakening the party, democrats are uniting on Key as free from factional quarrels and the logical man for the position. He is an able and popular lawyer, has made a clean, aggressive, dignified campaign and earned the good will and confidence of all the leaders. Nominate him August 2nd. (Adv.)

To the Voters of Ada.

In has been my earnest endeavor to ask each and every voter in and near here for their vote on next Tuesday but if there be any one I have failed to see I take this method of asking you for your vote. I feel that you know me and ask you for your support if you think me worthy of the office I ask for.

Thanking you in advance for your vote and any other support you may give me, I am

Respectfully yours

LET US HAVE FREE DELIVERY

With the close of the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, the quarterly report for such period shows the gross revenues of the Ada, Okla. post office to be $12,097.76. This is a very substantial increase over the preceding fiscal year, and entitles the patrons of the Ada post office to free mail delivery within the city limits of Ada, where the necessary crossings, sidewalks and other conveniences are in place as required by the post office department.

It is provided by the postal laws and regulations that when the sales of any post office located in any incorporated city or town produce an annual gross revenue of $10,000 or more, the patrons of such office may have the free mail delivery system established upon the request of their post master, by petition of the patrons of such office or by petition of the municipal authorities of such city, addressed to the First Assistant Post Master General.

The writer and others believe that the consensus of opinion relating to free delivery service for our growing city should be ascertained by the preparation and circulation of a petition concluding with a request and prayer for the establishment of such a system.

A petition was accordingly prepared and is being circulated among the people, and is receiving the almost unanimous support of our citizens there being a few persons, however, influenced by purely selfish motives, who refuse to sign the petition, and we are advised are making a fight against this proposed benefaction to all of our people, when it costs them nothing, and when the price paid by all is the mere asking.

By reason of the heretofore insufficient, annual gross revenues, this is the first time in the history of the Ada, Oklahoma, post office that our people have been in position to ask and secure the blessings and comforts of a free mail delivery, and we should avail ourselves of the opportunity at this time, since to defer the matter until some later time when a financial depression would bring the revenue under the $10,000 amount would absolutely preclude the establishment of any such system until we had secured a population of 10,000 or more people, or again increased our revenues to $10,000.

Furthermore the inauguration of such a system will necessarily employ at least four or five mail carriers or postmen, who will ultimately drain from the federal government $4,000 or $5,000 per year.

The postage paid by our people for the dispatch of their mail matter from the Ada, Okla., post office goes to help make up and pay the salaries of the postmen or mail carriers at Durant, Okmulgee or some other free delivery office, who deliver the mail to their patrons doors twice daily in the residence section and from two to five times daily in the business section of the city thereby saving every business man and every family an hour or two every day, saying nothing of time spent in going to the post office with their mail for dispatch.

We may assume that there are 1,000 families in the city of Ada, one member each of which goes to the post office two or three times a day, thereby consuming an hour's time of each family, aside from the various trips the business men make to the post office each day. This would be 1,000 hours of time spent every day of the year by the people in going to the post office, all of which could be done in thirty-two hours by four carriers with eight hours each. In other words, 1,000 hours would mean 125 days of 8 hours for one man. We cannot believe that there are those in the city who are persistent in having the good sons and daughters make these unnecessary trips to the post office through the elements two or three times a day, and that they will deliberately keep an enterprise from their door that costs them absolutely nothing or wantonly keep $4,000 or $5,000 away from the doors of their city. This is a benefit that will accrue to all alike as their can be no favorites under the postal system of the United States.

We are certainly as much entitled to these privileges as cities having a smaller population than ours, and it would seem eminently unfair for any set of men to undertake to thwart such a measure.

Big Pauls Valley Democrat Asks
Party to Nominate Him for Governor.

Pauls Valley Okla., July 15, 1910.
Hon. H. G. Stettinmund,
Chandler Okla.

My Dear Mr. Stettinmund—This is to acknowledge your letter of June 25th, in which you advise that a number of the newspapers supporting Mr. Cruce are claiming that if Mr. Murray is nominated it means the election of a republican governor and advising that there are a number of republicans in your county who express their intention to vote for Mr. Murray if he is the nominee, and that you do not know of any democrat who would not do so and requesting my opinion as Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee on the subject.

Replying to your letter, I beg to say that in my opinion Mr. Murray is the strongest candidate the democrats could nominate as a vote getter. If therefore, you have in Lincoln county democrats who are seeking to cast their ballots in the primary for the candidate who will prove the strongest vote getter at the General Election, I am sure they will line up for William H. Murray.

Mr. Murray is one of the best known men in Oklahoma public life. He was president of the constitutional convention. He was member and speaker of the First Legislature. He entered public life as a poor man, retired in debt. His ability, his honesty and his courage are unquestioned. He has a public record and no man in this campaign has dared to challenge that record. Not a single vote that he cast in either the Constitutional convention, which was in session for more than six months, or in the First Legislature of the state of Oklahoma, which was in session an equal length of time, has ever been called in question. A man who has made a record of this kind who is able, honest and courageous, who has sufficient ability to know the right and sufficient courage to do the right, will appeal to the honest, industrious and sober judgment of the people of Oklahoma.

A prize fight will congregate a great crowd of people and the newspapers will spread throughout the land every detail connected with the crowd and with the fight. A man who will simply read the newspapers might think that the prize fight was a popular sport, but away from the maddening crowd and around the sacred home circle multiplied millions of people, honest, sober home loving people, raise their voice in protest against this vicious sport. People may be misled in Oklahoma if they but listen to the loud acclaim of special privilege, and those who are in politics for what they can get out of it because this crowd is against Bill Murray and they do not lose an opportunity to stand upon the street corners and in the hotels and through the columns of the papers making known their opposition to him. Outside of this class however and around the home circle, the fire-side and through the country district, among that class of people whose only interest in government is to see an honest, faithful administration of the law without favor to any and an equal opportunity to all, Bill Murray represents the hope, and is the inspiration.

They say Bill Murray is strong headed. So was Andrew Jackson in derision they call him "Alfalfa Bill". For the same reason Lincoln was nicknamed "The Rail Splitter". Daniel Boone and David Crockett cared less for their personal appearance than does Bill Murray yet all of these men were signally honored by the people among whom they lived in their days and each with distinguished ability and scrupulous integrity discharged every trust imposed upon him. Neither of them were ever beaten for office. Bill Murray has never been beaten and his simple, honest, sincere life appeals to the sentiment of the very best people in Oklahoma.

We have in Oklahoma more independent thinkers and voters than they have in any other state in this union. Men who hold the good of their country above all other considerations. Among this class of men Bill Murray will get more votes than any other man in Oklahoma we can nominate. If Bill Murray is the democratic nominee of Oklahoma I do not believe the republicans of this state will make a serious effort to elect their ticket. If any other democratic candidate is the nominee the democrats will know they have a campaign when next November arrives. Sincerely your friend
J. B. THOMPSON

JUDGE J. F. McKEEL'S MOTHER DIES SUDDENLY

Judge J. F. McKeel received the most sorrowful news that his mother, Mrs. Caroline McKeel of Sallisaw had suddenly passed away. The sad message came to Judge McKeel yesterday morning about 5:30 o'clock, his mother's death having occurred a few minutes previously. She was apparently in good health, and passed away suddenly, and unexpectedly to her family.

Judge McKeel left yesterday immediately to be present at the funeral today, and will probably return tomorrow.

MURRAY'S LAST APPEAL.

Issues Strong Address to the Democratic Voters of Oklahoma.

July 27, 1910

Dear Sir: I desire to call you to witness that in my announcement I stated that I expected the attack of the corporate press of the state and the hounding of a debased gang of politicians. The fact that they have done so is no surprise to any person who knows their efforts in the past to thwart the will of the people and prevent the inauguration of wise wholesome government in the interest of the great common people

I make this, my last appeal to the great common people of the state, and especially to the farmers, by whose votes largely I expected in the beginning to win this nomination if they will stand as firm for me as I stood for them in 1907, when the Constitution was in danger of wreck and ruin, through the efforts of the Federal Courts of the old Territory there will be no doubt of my nomination and the question of count The majority will be so great as to leave no man in doubt Indeed, if the farmers, along with the other citizens who are supporting me are as loyal as I have expected them to be, and as logic as would indicate and as appears certain now, the victory of the great common people will be as sweeping as was the victory of the people on the 11th day of June against the allied railroads in an effort to destroy the corporation provisions of the constitution

Word has just reached me that the Cruise supporters intend to put into the prairie portions of the state during the last week six hundred automobiles, filled with political literature and dope and speakers, in an effort to turn the tide which has so thoroughly set in for me As a calculation will disclose that since automobiles cost on an average of $10 a day, to operate them three days of the campaign would cost to operate 600 automobiles $18,000, to say nothing of the cost of the literature and the hotel bills and personal expenses of their speakers and campaigners, I shall be unable to answer these attacks because I have not the money with which to answer them I shall confidently rely upon the farmers and the great common people of the state to stand for me like a stone wall against these assaults of the corporate interests of the state who have not yet felt that they have been thoroughly whipped by the people and their friends

This is my last appeal by literature or otherwise, except upon the stump, to the people of the state and the last warning I shall be enabled to reach them without warning them of the assaults at the close of this campaign by distribution of circular and other literature falsifying my position, as they falsified my position upon Indian taxes the Grandfather Clause, and other questions for which I have stood ever since I have been in public life I appeal to every Murray man to go to the polls on the second day of August and remain until the polls are closed, and the votes counted and the ballots announced If this is done there is no doubt of the result Give me this nomination by a handsome majority and I will defeat any man put up in opposition to me in the general election more than thirty thousand votes

Soliciting your vote and influence, and again, thanking all my friends and the great common people of the country for their loyal support in the past, I am, with deepest appreciation, Yours sincerely, WM H MURRAY

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

THE CONFIDENCE OF YOUTH

New York Judge Tells How, When a Boy, He Wanted Whitelaw Reid's Job.

It isn't often that a man will tell a story the point of which is barbed in his own flesh. But Judge William Hornblow is responsible for this yarn of his youth. He even declared that he profited by the experience, for he has been less chesty ever since. "I had determined to enter the profession of journalism," said he, according to the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star, "and I could hardly wait to say good-by to the members of my graduating class before hurrying to New York. The morning I arrived I sent down for all the papers and spent the day in my hotel room, reading them over thoroughly. I wanted to decide, you see, which one I should favor with my services. Finally I decided on the Tribune, then edited by Whitelaw Reid, who is now its principal owner. That night I dressed in my best and strolled down to the editorial rooms. "It isn't always easy to get in to see a city editor, but it may be that my swelling chest impressed the door boy. I was ushered in and sat down to tell the autocrat what I desired. He smiled upon me—a smile, as I later became aware, full of guile and venom. He said that he had no place vacant on his staff. Encouraged by that fatal grin, I gave him a more thorough insight into my capacity, and finally suggested that as the Tribune could not afford to miss such a chance, he might make a place for me. "That is," said he, "discharge some one to make room for you?" I modestly admitted that, translated into cruel words, that is what I meant. "But you wouldn't want to be a reporter," said he. "You would prefer to write our editorials, no doubt?" A vision of the glory that awaited me made my head swim. But I kept a cold and unmoved countenance as I assured him that he was correct. "You'll have to give me a week or so to make the arrangements," said he, turning the deceitful brilliance of his smile upon me. "You see, before I hire you I shall fire Whitelaw Reid."

CARVED OUT HIGH POSITION

Wonderful Rise of Sir Ernest Cassel From Obscurity to Companion of Monarchs.

Sir Ernest Cassel, one of King Edward's hosts at Biarritz, has had a career full of romance, the romance of the self-made man. It seems like a fairy tale that the unknown lad of the '70s should now be the friend and counsellor of the king of England and the German emperor. It is rumored that he is one of the six men who move in the mysterious background of the government of England, says the "Daily Mail." He has been the builder of his own fortune. Money has grown under his hands, and banks and railways have made his vast riches. One of the most dramatic moments in his career was a Boer war incident. The British government stood in need of a big sum at short notice. It was obtained by Sir Ernest in three hours. Luck seems not to attend him on the turf, although he once won the Two Thousand. Much has been written on Brook house, his Park Lane residence, but there has been scant mention of the Turkish baths which occupy part of the ground floor, nor of the marvelous range of kitchens. There are six of these, with marble floors and walls, and they include pastry kitchens, grilling, roasting and boiling kitchens, a vegetable kitchen and a room for fruit and flowers.

Playing for Safety.

"Why don't you move up the aisle?" roared the incensed conductor on the Cedar line. "Yes, I mean you! There's lots of vacant room between you and the lady." The little man with the sandy mustache unsteadily shook his head. "All the room that's there will stay there," he called back rather thickly. "I know when I'm well off, heah your life." "Nothing's going to hurt you," cried the conductor. "Nothing's going to hurt me," the little man repeated. "Whash you call those four hatpins?" And he pointed with an unsteady finger at the woman's hat. Of course there were only two pins, but they were long enough to scare a much braver man.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pennsylvania Elk Herd.
Former Congressman Alexander Blinn, of Washingtonville, Montour county, Pa., since the successful wintering over of his herd of elk, declares that he now has the largest and finest herd of elk anywhere in captivity. He has 20 in all, headed by one of the finest young bulls that ever stalked a preserve. The young fellow has been named Jumbo, in honor of the old one, that was made famous when he was taken to Philadelphia during the Elks convention.

Watch Crystals of Celluloid.
Celluloid watch crystals have appeared and are guaranteed not to break like those of glass. The celluloid crystals are not favored by dealers in the higher grades of watches, but are placed on cheap timepieces. Of late the German manufacturers have been employing these crystals. They cost a little more than glass, but are liked because of their durability.—Scientific American.

HER LAST WORD

"What are you doing now?" cried Mrs. Cozens with a spirit. And as for William Cozens, William Cozens continued to eat his dinner, though in a guilty manner and as one who knows that he is in wrong again. "I say, what are you doing now?" repeated Mrs. Cozens. "Can't you see what I'm doing?" demanded William. "Can't you see that I'm eating?" "Oh, you're eating, are you?" inquired Mrs. Cozens, with terrible sarcasm. "Yes, I'm eating, am I?" "Oh!" "And what did you move your plate for?" asked Mrs. Cozens. "Never mind!" cried William. "But I do mind!" cried Mrs. Cozens; "I do mind! And that's the third time this week you've done it, too!" "Well," grumbled William, "you shouldn't put so much gravy on my plate, and then it couldn't get over on the cloth. That's all I say!" "O, that's all you say, is it?" "Yes," said William, with dignity, "that's all I say." "And you thought I wouldn't see it if you moved your plate over it, did you?" "Never mind!" cried William again. "But I do mind!" cried Mrs. Cozens. "Why can't you be more careful? You are always doing it!" "O, forget it!" said William. "But I won't forget it!" cried Mrs. Cozens. "And here's another thing: You've got to stop dropping your cigar ashes all over the house!" "Who does?" cried William. "You do!" cried Mrs. Cozens. "I know I don't!" cried William. "O, don't you?" "No! I don't! And you know right well I don't!" "Mm!" said Mrs. Cozens, more sarcastic than ever, "I suppose it's the bird, then! Yes! That's it. It's little Dick! He gets up in the night and opens his cage and gets at your cigars and smokes them! And as he flies around, smoking, he drops the ashes! Yes! Flips them off with his little wing! Yes! That must be it!" "Don't be a fool!" urged William, impatiently. "No!" cried Mrs. Cozens, "it's you that's the fool!" And having disposed of that constantly troubled point she returned to her bill of charges. "And here's another thing, too!" she cried, "when you're through with the newspaper at night, you just fold it up and put it away! I'm not going to run around 'putting things up' after you any more!" "No?" said William. "Well, well!" "No!" said Mrs. Cozens, "I'm not! And the next time you leave your slippers lying around they'll stay there!" "O!" said William. "Anything else?" "And the next time you tie a bit of lettuce above Dick's cage just where the little pet can't reach it you'll hear from me!" "O! I'll hear from you, will I?" said William, and drawing a great sigh he finished his rice pudding and said, "O, well! Perhaps I won't be here long!" "Trust you for that!" cried Mrs. Cozens. "I'm the one that won't be here long!" "No!" said William sadly, "I'm the one." And he fell into a reverie as one who pictures the future, and when he spoke next it was in a very mournful tone. "You'll look over at my place, then," he sighed, "and there won't be any spots on the cloth. And you'll walk around and won't find any cigar ashes—" "No?" asked Mrs. Cozens. "No newspapers to pick up—" continued William, sadly. "Well, well!" "No slippers—" "Oh!" "No bits of lettuce hanging over Dick's cage—no William—no nothing!" And drawing another large sigh, he looked over at Mrs. Cozens with gloomy satisfaction, as though he said, "Now, what do you say?" And as for Mrs. Cozens she gazed back at her William with a look that said, "This is what I say," and just before William went down and out for the full count she cried in a brisk voice: "William, is your insurance paid up?"

Deposing the Dalai Lama.
In the imperial Chinese decree deposing the Dalai lama appears this curious paragraph: "A-wang-lo-pu-tsang-tu-pu-tan-chin-cho-chia-chai-wang-chu-chio-le-lang-chieh is hereby commanded to be divested of his title of dalai lama, in order to show penalty wherever he may escape and whether he returns to Tibet or otherwise, he shall be regarded henceforth not otherwise than as one of the common people. The residents are commanded speedily to seek among children born with miraculous signs and draw their names by lot from the 'golden urn,' according to former practice. The name drawn shall be created the real hubli han (reincarnation) of the preceding dalai lama, and application shall be made to us for bestowal of a proper title and favors, so that the propaganda of the canons may be perpetuated and due importance may be attached to religious affairs."

BEST FOOD FOR BABIES

If you are having trouble with the baby's food, and nothing seems to agree with it, you can probably get the child to take A. D. S. Malted Milk, retain it and thrive on it, as it is a particularly nourishing, satisfying and carefully made preparation, intended especially for troublesome stomachs of both infants and adults. It is one of the standard, reliable American Druggists' Syndicate products, and its use is unhesitatingly advised by the entire 12,000 druggists who are A. D. S. members, and know its true value. There is nothing in it to prove harmful to the baby—no drugs or medicines. It is merely a scientifically made article of food, which you can rely upon. This is the way they speak of

ADS MALTED MILK

Mr. V. G. Newell, a prominent druggist of Warren, Pa., says: "Gentlemen—Enclosed you will find a picture of my youngest boy, whose LIFE WAS SAVED BY A. D. S. MALTED MILK. "That sounds like a pretty big story, but here are the facts: "John Winston Newell was born January 27, 1909, and after the first week his mother was unable to nurse him. He was put on a well-advertised brand of malted milk, and at 5 weeks weighed only 7 1/2 pounds, was very thin and showed symptoms of starvation. Then we put him on A. D. S. Malted Milk, and he began to gain at once. At 5 months, when this picture was taken, he weighed 15 pounds. We cannot recommend it too highly." Get it any A. D. S. drug store.
